

BIOGRAPHY OF THE SPEAKER

STEPHAN KAMPHUES

Stephan Kamphues has held various positions at E.ON Ruhrgas AG, which he joined as Head of the Business Law/East European Law Section in 1992 after practicing as a lawyer.

In 1996, he took over as Head of the Legal Department at E.ON Ruhrgas International AG (formerly Ruhrgas Energie Beteiligungs-AG) before becoming a member of the Management Board in May 2004.

While at E.ON Ruhrgas International, his main focus was on the acquisition and development of the company's foreign shareholdings in Western and Central Europe. During this period, he also served on several supervisory and management boards.

Stephan Kamphues has been CEO of Open Grid Europe GmbH (formerly E.ON Gastransport GmbH) since 1 March 2008. Following his involvement with the GTE Executive Committee, he was elected the first ENTSOG President in December 2009.
