

SPEAKER'S BIOGRAPHY

Gwyn Dolben

Gwyn Dolben was educated at the universities of Cambridge, York and Bradford.

After working for Siemens UK, Framatome and the Department of Trade & Industry, he joined the UK electricity industry in 1983. He has since held a number of management posts in electricity companies and industry trade associations, covering economic regulation, public affairs and European relations.

In May 2003 he became Head of European Affairs at the UK Association of Electricity Producers, and is responsible for relations between the UK power generation sector and the Brussels institutions.

He has served on a number of European Commission and UK Government consultative groups and currently sits on the Energy Committee of the Confederation of British Industry.

He has represented the UK electricity companies on a number of committees in EURELECTRIC. He served as chairman of EURELECTRIC Gas Working Group from 1996 to 2002, and currently chairs the Energy Policy Working Group.

