

About the speaker

Dr. Werner Brinker has been the Chief Executive Officer of EWE AG since 1998.

He is responsible for the strategic orientation of the EWE Group and for developing the Energy and Telecommunications business areas.

Dr. Brinker can look back on more than 30 years of experience in the energy industry. He began his career at EWE in 1978. He was initially responsible for gas purchasing, before going on to build up the waste management department.

Subsequently Dr. Brinker switched to PreussenElektra AG (today: E.ON Energie AG) in Hanover, where he was an authorised signatory and director of the main sales department. In 1996 he returned to EWE AG, joining the Board of Management as Board member with responsibility for technology.

Dr. Brinker was born in 1952 in Lingen, Germany, studied at Brunswick Technical University and obtained his doctorate in civil engineering in 1990.
