

About the Speakers

Christopher DELBRÜCK

Chief Executive Officer of E.ON Global Commodities

Christopher Delbrück has been Chief Executive Officer of E.ON Global Commodities (EGC) since October 2013. Under his leadership, EGC is responsible for optimizing one of Europe's broadest and most diverse power and gas portfolios and for identifying new opportunities to create value in global energy commodity markets.

Mr Delbrück has more than 18 years of experience in the energy sector and he has held a number of senior management positions in the E.ON Group including Vice President of Corporate Development Central Europe and European Gas for E.ON AG in Düsseldorf.

Mr Delbrück has a Master's degree in Public Administration from the Harvard Kennedy School, where he was McCloy Scholar. He also has a degree in economics from the University of Kiel and a BA from Heidelberg University.

Simone MORI

Executive Vice President, Enel

Simone Mori with a degree in physics and a Master's degree in Public Administration has held several positions within Enel. Since July 2014, he is the Head of Enel's European Affairs Department. Previously, he was the Head of Regulatory, Environment and Innovation Department.

He teaches Economics of Energy Business at "La Sapienza" University in Rome and at "LUISS Guido Carli" University.

He is also a Senior Trans-Atlantic fellow of the German Marshall Fund of the United States.