

Presentation of the speakers

Francesco Giunti

Executive Vice President - Portfolio, Market & Risk Strategy and director of Enipower

Graduated in Social and Economic Disciplines at the Bocconi University, Francesco Giunti has been working in Eni since 1986.

In his early career, in 1986, he joined Snam S.p.A., originally a subsidiary of Eni. More recently, he held various senior positions within the company, such as: Senior Vice-President Risk Management, Portfolio Balancing and Relations with Authorities at Eni's Gas and Power division already from 2004.

Since January 2016, he is Executive Vice President - Portfolio, Market & Risk Strategy and Director of Enipower. Mr Giunti is also active in a number of associations at national and EU level, such as:

- the Presidency Committee of Anigas, the Association of the Italian natural gas companies;
- the Board of Assoelettrica, the Association of the Italian power companies;
- the Board of Confindustria Energia, the Federation of the Italian Energy Associations;
- the Board of Eurogas, the Association of the European gas companies.