

Presentation of the speaker

Khurram Gaba

Policy Planning Executive for ExxonMobil Refining & Supply

Khurram Gaba is Policy Planning Executive for ExxonMobil Refining & Supply. He has over 30 years of experience in the Oil, Gas and Petrochemicals Industry.

Khurram is a graduate of Oxford University, where he gained a MA degree in Engineering Science in 1982. From 1982 to 1983, he completed an MSc degree in Fluid and Structural Mechanics at Imperial College, London.

In 1983 he joined Halliburton, as a Project Engineer, engaged in North Sea oil and gas field development. In 1990 he joined Exxon in the U.K. as a Staff Engineer, supporting European oil refining operations. Subsequently, he has held a variety of technical, supervisory, managerial, leadership and advisory positions with ExxonMobil, in Research & Engineering, Safety & Operations Integrity, and in Oil Refining and Chemicals Manufacturing businesses. This has involved several international assignments, in support of ExxonMobil's global operations. In 2014 he assumed his current role in Strategy and Planning, based in Brussels. His responsibilities include fuels policy planning for Europe, Middle East and Asia Pacific regions.

Khurram is a Chartered Engineer, and a member of the UK Institution of Civil Engineers, the American Society of Civil Engineers and the UK Royal Institution of Naval Architects.